

BY LAUGHING TREES

Come sit with me      By laughing trees
Let Love and Life flow o'er

Beneath this dome      Our fragrant home
The wind and waves sing praises

A bowl of wine      A blessed mime
Will grace our greenish bower

The fire of gods      Which joyful plods
Cracks jokes and laughs inside us

Wild as Dervishes we whirl,
Rice wine in the water,
Still as tides we lie,
Embers glow and flicker,
Minds like lemmings run,
To drown in gleeful giggling,
Sunrise after Sunset,
Flame on flame rebuilding,
This song created be,
No flaw be in its singing.

© Elmar T. Schmeisser